

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Nupur Agarwal, who served as an Editorial Coordinator for The Lovepost from September 2024 to January 2025. During her time with The Lovepost, Nupur played a critical role in driving the success of our projects, especially through her exceptional communication and project management skills.

One of Nupur's key contributions was her ability to connect with influencers and experts from around the globe to secure interviews for our Human Rights Edition. Her professionalism, cultural sensitivity and communication skills made her an effective liaison between our publication and the diverse voices featured in our work. She demonstrated notable initiative in expanding our network and ensuring we had impactful content that aligned with our vision. Beyond securing interviews, Nupur had an in-depth understanding of story development by aligning experts with the angles and themes of our stories.

Nupur's reliability and dedication also stood out throughout her time with us. She ensured that all aspects of her coordination were handled with precision and efficiency, and the entire team could always count on her to get things across the line. Her ability to juggle multiple responsibilities while maintaining exceptional communication made her an invaluable asset to our team.

I highly recommend Nupur for any role that demands exceptional organisational skills, clear communication and a strong work ethic. Her contributions to The Lovepost were invaluable, and I am confident she will bring the same level of professionalism and excellence to any future endeavour.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
